

Welcome.US Citizen Guide Program

Prepare for citizenship with a Citizen Guide by your side.

The Welcome.US Citizen Guide program pairs you one-on-one with a Citizen Guide, a trained volunteer who will help you prepare for the citizenship exam. Sessions are online, free, and can be scheduled at times that work for you. You can choose to practice English conversation, study for the civics test, or prepare for the citizenship interview.

Three ways Citizen Guides can help

- English conversation practice: Build the language skills and confidence you need for the citizenship exam. About 10 weekly sessions, one hour each.
- Citizenship test preparation: Practice civics exam questions and review English reading, writing, and comprehension for exam day. About 10 weekly sessions, one hour each.
- Mock citizenship interview practice: Practice the citizenship interview through one or two 60-minute mock interviews, so you feel ready on exam day. One to two sessions, one hour each.

What the program does not offer

The Citizen Guide program is strictly a tutoring and mentorship program. Volunteers do not:

- Provide legal advice
- Act as attorneys or accredited representatives
- Complete or assist with the N-400 application form
- Teach English as a Second Language (ESL)
- Offer translation during sessions

Is this program for you?

This program is for newcomers who can answer “yes” to ALL of the following questions:

- Are you a green card holder (lawful permanent resident)?
- Are you at least 18 years old?
- Do you have basic English skills and are you comfortable having conversations in English?

What you can expect from the Citizen Guide program

- Personalized volunteer support matched to your needs and schedule
- Access to free training materials and resources for citizenship preparation
- Flexible online meetings
- Building confidence as you prepare for the citizenship exam
- Opportunities to build cross-cultural connections
- Additional practice support if you are also taking in-person classes
